Let's Start!

Learning more in your career.

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- Do you ever take courses for work?
- How do you feel about exams?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can talk about real possibilities and events in the future.

Let's Explore!

John and Peter talk about their jobs and other things coming up.

* We say something is "coming up" when an event is happening in the very near future.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Peter: Hi, John. How is your adventure on the high seas?
John: Well, I'm floating along. How's life on dry land?
Peter: Pretty good. At my internship, I just wrapped up an important project. I'm learning a lot.
John: Me too. I planned a lot of leisure activities for passengers. There's a lot going on.
Peter: Same here. I also gave a presentation to the rest of my team.
John: Oh, yeah? You know, even on the ship, workshops are presented often. I met other colleagues for the first time that way.
Peter: Hey, final exams are coming up. I'm quite nervous.
John: Oh, you'll pass with flying colors.
Peter: If I get a good grade, I will be more attractive to recruiters.
John: And if you get a high-paying job, you can come on a cruise and visit me.

Let's Practice!

If you get a good job, you can

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

- | | |
|--------------------------------|---|
| 1. If Peter goes to workshops, | I would be more attractive to recruiters. |
| 2. If you study hard, | you'll pass with flying colors. |
| 3. If I get a good grade, | I can go on a cruise and visit you. |
| 4. If I get a high-paying job, | he'll meet other colleagues. |

Let's Practice!

Peter and John tell each other about work.

*Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use: colleges, present, project, passages, presentation, colleagues, passengers.

Learning Points

The First Conditional

You use the First Conditional to talk about real possibilities in the future.

You use the First Conditional to say it's possible that you will do something. In that condition, something else will happen.

If Clause	Main Clause	Meaning
If you cook the meat too long,	it will burn.	It's possible you will cook the meat too long. In this condition: it will burn.
If I ask the teacher to help me,	I will pass the test.	It's possible I will ask the teacher to help me. In this condition: I will pass the test.
If he gets a high-paying job,	he can go on a vacation twice a year.	It's possible he will get a high-paying job. In this condition: he can go on vacation twice a year.
