

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Peter e-mails John about a new job.

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- When did you start your current job?
- How did you feel when you first got the offer?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can talk about hypothetical actions and events in the future.

Let's Explore!

Peter gets on the fast track for his career.

* Something "on the fast track" advances quickly.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

On Feb 24, at 2:04 PM, Peter Smith <peter.smith@mail.com> wrote:

Hey, John. I hope you're well. You were right. I passed all my exams with flying colors. I was so anxious, but now I am so relieved. However, I'm not going on a cruise just yet. Guess what? I received a call the other day from a recruiter about a job at a large investment firm. It sounds really promising. I think I'll take it.

On Feb 25, at 10:20 PM, John Harris <John.Harris@mail.com> wrote:

Hey, Peter. That's fabulous. Congratulations. It's OK about the cruise. I'm sure you'll come later. Once you take this job, you'll be on the fast track in your career.

On Feb 26, at 7:12 AM, Peter Smith <peter.smith@mail.com> wrote:

Thanks, John. If I take this job, I'll be saying goodbye to MechaTech. After I leave, I'll really miss Amanda, my partner here. I'll let you know what happens. That's it for now.

Let's Practice!

Peter talks about his final exam.

Instructions: Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence. Use one of the words in brackets.

1. I passed all my exams with flying _____ (collars / colors / collage).
2. I was so _____ (anxious / anxiety / anxiousness) about my first day on the job.
3. I'm so _____ (relieving / relieved / relief) the interview is over.
4. I _____ (receive / receiving / received) a package from another company.

Let's Practice!

Peter thinks about his future.

Instructions: Practice reading the sentences aloud.

1. I was so anxious, but now I am so relieved.
2. I received a call the other day from a recruiter.
3. After you take this job, you'll be on the fast track in your career.
4. If I take this job, I'll be saying goodbye to MechaTech.
5. I'll let you know what happens. That's it for now.

Extension Activity

I got the job! I have to tell my friends and family!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write an e-mail to a friend telling them that you got a new job.
- Explain why you accepted the job.
- Explain to your friends what you will miss from your old job.
- Use first conditional sentences.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write an e-mail.

☐ ☐

I talk about jobs and work.

☐ ☐

I write about future possibilities.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- anxious (adjective): being afraid or nervous about what may happen
Example: I'm anxious about my test coming up.
- relieved (adjective): feeling relaxed and happy because something difficult passed/finished e.g. I'm so relieved my test is done.
- Guess what? (expression): You say this before you tell someone something interesting or surprising to catch their attention.
Example: Guess what? I just got a new job.
- investment firm (noun): a company that uses your money to buy stock in another company to make more money e.g. Peter's business skills helped him get a job in an investment firm.
- I'll take it. (expression): You say this when we decide to purchase an item or accept an offer.
Example: The company offered me the job. I think I'll take it.
- career (noun): a job for a number of years in the field you choose e.g. I look forward to starting my career with this company.
- That's it. (expression): You say this to mean there is no more of something or to finish a conversation. e.g.
Susan: Is there anything else I need to know?
Michael: No. That's it.

Learning Points

The First Conditional

You use the first conditional to say it's possible that you will do something. In that condition, something else will happen.

You can start the sentence with when, after and once to say what the result will be when we do something or after we finish an action.

If Clause	Main Clause	Meaning
If you cook the meat too long,	it will burn.	It's possible you will cook the meat too long. In this condition: it will burn.
If I ask the teacher to help me,	I will pass the test.	It's possible I will ask the teacher to help me. In this condition: I will pass the test.
If he gets a high-paying job,	he can go on a vacation twice a year.	It's possible he will get a high-paying job. In this condition: he can go on vacation twice a year.

Examples:

- After I pass my test, I will look for a better job.
- When I get a high-paying job, I might need to buy new work clothes.
- Once I start making a lot of money, I will go on a cruise.

