Let's Start!

Writing Spot: John is attending a workshop on board his cruise ship. Sandra is the guest speaker.

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- Have you been to a presentation for work before?
- Did you have to fill out an evaluation form?

Can Do Statements

- I can fill out an evaluation form.
- I can write a short text about work.
- I can write useful feedback.

Let's Explore!

Sandra just completed her presentation on customer service. What does John think of the information she provided?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sandra: That concludes the presentation on customer service. My assistant, Simone, will be handing out an evaluation form for you to complete.
- John: That was fantastic, Sandra. You really know your stuff.
- Sandra: Thanks, John. I worked in customer service for a long time.
- John: How long did you work for Diego's?
- Sandra: Six years. I spent three years as a tour guide and two years in management.
- John: I particularly liked when you spoke about disgruntled customers.
- Sandra: Dealing with unhappy people is always a challenge. Patience and clear communication is key.
- John: Also, your ideas about loyalty programs were a hit with the group.
- Sandra: They seem to encourage customers to come back year after year.
- John: I would definitely recommend anyone in hospitality to come to this presentation.
- Sandra: I hope you include this in your evaluation form.
- John: You bet! Aren't we all meeting up in the conference room for lunch now?

Let's Practice!

What does John write on the evaluation form? Look for the key words.

Instructions: Read each clue. Check off the correct square.

1. Did the course give you ideas about how to handle poor customer behavior?
2. Would you recommend this guest speaker to others?
3. Was your interest held?
4. Do you have a better understanding of other cultures?
5. Overall, how would you rate the course?

reservations	itinerary	rate
behavior		guest speaker
other cultures	interest	management

Let's Practice!

Can you write about work related topics?

Instructions: Use the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Learning Points

Evaluation Form

An evaluation form is a form you complete after someone has presented a workshop or seminar.

You give your opinion about the quality of the presentation.

Often, you have to circle number 1-5, 1 being most negative and 5 being the most positive.

Example:

Would you recommend this course to others? 1 2 3 4 5

Giving Opinions

When you complete an evaluation form, you give your opinion about products and the service you receive.

Here are some examples of how to give an opinion.

- I felt ...
- I think/thought ...
- I enjoyed/I didn't enjoy ...
- I would recommend/I would not recommend ...

Examples:

- I felt that the employees were not trained properly.
- I thought that the speech was excellent but the room was too noisy.
- I enjoyed the lunch. It was delicious!
- I would recommend the course to other employees.
