

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Two paths to choose from. Which one will you choose?

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- How do you feel when you come home after a long day?
- Do you think you will stay in your present job for a long time?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can talk about hypothetical actions and events in the future.

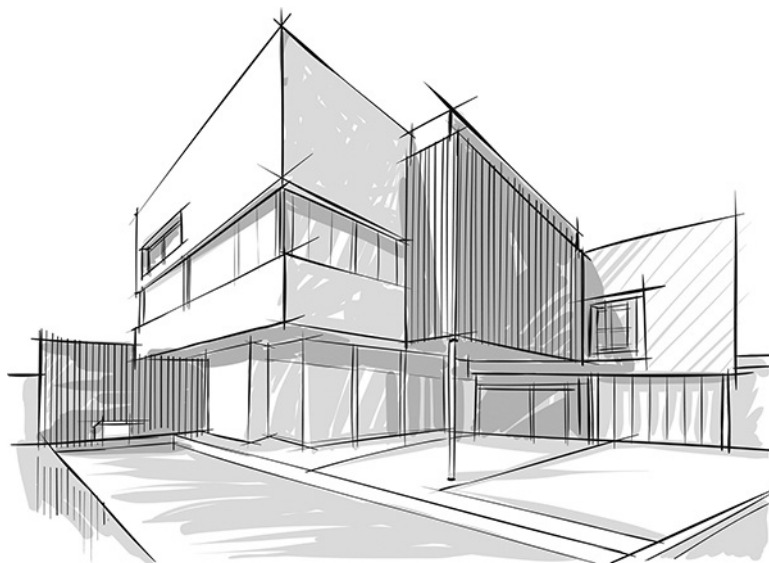

Let's Explore!

Peter and John consider their future in their careers

* A "career" is a long term job in one field that you stay in for many years.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Peter: Hey, John. Welcome home. Nice to be on dry land?
John: Yeah, I've had it on the waves for a while. Good to see you, Peter.
Peter: Did you take a leave of absence?
John: A short one. Did you get the job with the investment firm?
Peter: No, not yet! Once I get on board, it holds tremendous potential for my career.
John: I agree. For my career, I'm unsure if I want to stay in the tourism industry.
Peter: If you move to another field, your skills can transfer over.
John: True. There is professional development coming up on the ship.
Peter: I went to a PD workshop before. If you go, you'll figure out if you like tourism.
John: The topic is customer service, which sounds interesting.
Peter: I hope you get a lot out of it.

Let's Practice!

What are the possibilities in Peter and John's future?

Instructions: Draw a line from the statements on the left to the statements on the right to match each idea.

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1. John's time off from the ship | tremendous potential for his career |
| 2. Peter's new job | skills can transfer over |
| 3. John's career | a leave of absence |
| 4. Moving to another career field | helpful for career decisions unsure |
| 5. Professional development | about the tourism industry |

Let's Practice!

Peter and John think about possible changes in their careers.

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use: get, figure out, holds, transfer.

- Once I get on board, it _____ tremendous potential for my career.
- If you move to another field, your skills can _____ over.
- If you go to a workshop, you will _____ if you like tourism.
- If you go to a workshop, you will _____ a lot out of it.

Extension Activity

Write about what you want to learn in professional development.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- a) What skills do you hold from your current job? Write a list.

Examples: I can ... , I'm good at ... , I know how to ...

- b) Ask your partners what they wish to learn for professional development? Write a list of 3-4 suggestions.

Example: If there is a professional development workshop, I want to learn about customer service.

- c) Write 4 sentences using first conditional. Write about what you can do if you learn something in professional development.

Example: If I learn about _____ in professional development, I can _____.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I identify skills from my job.

☐ ☐

I write sentences about my skills.

☐ ☐

I write suggestions on professional learning.

☐ ☐

I write about work expressing possibilities.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- I've had it (expression): You say this when you've had enough putting up with something difficult or unpleasant.
Example: I've had it with going up and down on a ship.
- leave of absence (noun): a period of time away from your regular job
e.g. John is taking a leave of absence from his job on the ship.
- to be on board (expression): to agree with others or to join e.g. Everyone in the office is on board with the new idea.
- tremendous (adjective): very large or excellent
e.g. This new job has tremendous benefits for my career.
- tourism (noun): the industry related to travel
e.g. John doesn't want to stay in the tourism industry on the ship.
- professional development (noun): learning related to a career
Example: The professional development workshop I went to really helped me.
- finance (noun): any area related to money
e.g. Peter is interested in a career in finance.

Learning Points

The First Conditional

The first conditional can be used in the positive form.

Example: If I get a high-paying job, I will buy new work clothes.

The first conditional can also be used in the negative form.

Example: If I don't get a high-paying job, I won't buy new work clothes.

You can also use the first conditional starting with when and after.

You can start the sentence with when, after and once to say what the result will be when you do something or after you finish an action.

Examples:

- After I pass my test, I will look for a better job.
- When I get a high-paying job, I might need to buy new work clothes.
- Once I start making a lot of money, I will go on a cruise.

