Let's Start!

John meets someone he likes.

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- Did you ever meet someone interesting at your workplace?
- What's he or she like?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can describe people's appearance and personality.
- I can say what I was doing when something else happened.

Let's Explore!

John is in love with someone at work.

* You can say you're feeling "in love" even though the relationship is new and not at that level yet.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Hi, John. How's life on the high seas?

John: Getting better, Peter. I gained some insight from that workshop on customer service, like greeting every customer and starting a loyalty program on the ship.

Peter: Excellent! How is Sandra?

John: Oh, she's intelligent and funny with a sweet smile. I asked her to go out for a coffee.

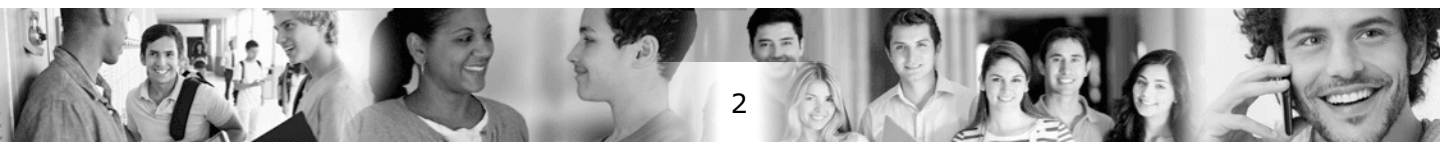

Peter: Nice going.

John: My line was a real sinker, but she's so warm-hearted and understanding that she accepted. She called back while I was working. And she's really passionate about good coffee.

Peter: When I got the last message from you, you were describing how lovely she is.

John: Yeah, she has a gorgeous figure that's really toned. She probably goes to the gym. When we walked together on the deck, her long hair was swaying elegantly in the breeze.

Peter: Are you in love?

Let's Practice!

How does John describe Sandra?

Instructions: Write the words in the correct category.
