On March 4, at 9:10 PM, John Harris <John.Harris@mail.com> wrote:

Hi, Peter. I have to confess I'm attracted to Sandra, the lovely presenter for that professional development workshop. She works as the Director of Operations for US Tours on the ship.

The presentation was helpful, but when she was talking, I was just focusing on her face. She has long, straight, brown hair and nice hazel eyes. She has full glossy lips, a slender face and a beautiful smile. She's slim and about my height. She seems really friendly, too. When she walked by my office yesterday, I was talking on the phone. Then when she had free time, I was leading a tour. By the time I returned, she had a business dinner. I will try to have a longer conversation with her sometime.

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Past Tense & Past Continuous Tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished.

You use the Past Continuous tense to talk about events or an action that was happening at a time in the past.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you ask ... ?

Did is the past form of to do.

For Past Continuous, we add was/were + verb"ing" to verbs.

Some verbs need a change to the last letter to add "ing".

Present	Past	Past Continuous
talk	talked	was/were talking
walk	walked	was/were walking
focus	focused	was/were focusing
lead	led	was/were leading
return	returned	was/were returning
have	had	was/were having

Examples:

- When she walked by my office, I was talking on the phone.
- When she was talking, I just focused on her face.
- When she had free time, I was leading a tour.
- When I returned from the tour, she was having dinner.
