

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

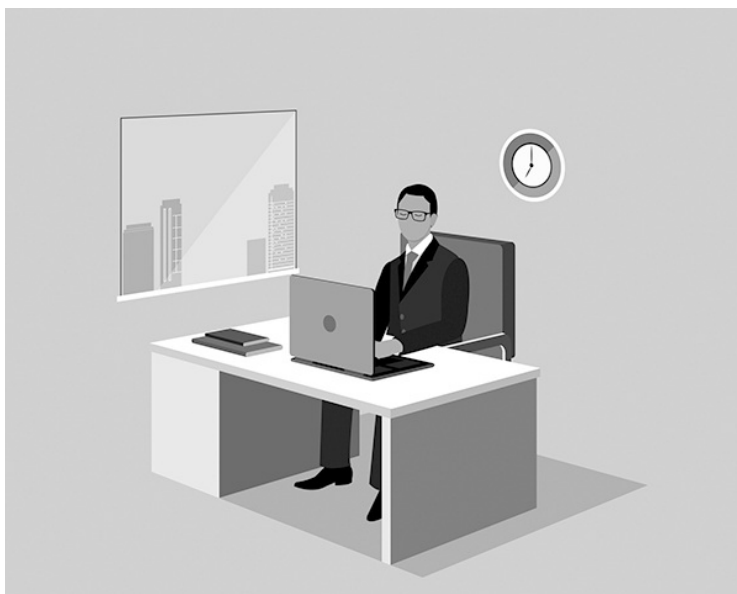

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let me know what you think!

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- What is the most interesting thing you learned at work or at school?
- Can you suggest a topic you would like to learn about?

Can Do Statements

- I can agree and disagree tactfully.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can make comparisons.

Let's Explore!

Mr. Micklewhite wants to know John's opinion. What does John suggest?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Mr. Micklewhite: Hello, John. Thanks for coming in. I appreciated your feedback on the workshop. Tell me more about it.
- John: In my opinion, it was certainly the most enriching workshop up to now.
- Mr. Micklewhite: No doubt about it. Would you say that customer service is a better topic than others?
- John: Absolutely. The focus of our service is on passengers. So, it's the most important.
- Mr. Micklewhite: You have a point there. I'll inquire with U.S. Tours to put it on for every employee.
- John: The way I see it, it might be problematic making it compulsory for every guide.
- Mr. Micklewhite: What makes you say that?
- John: Well, they're all occupied with tours and planning. However, if we hold it earlier in the morning than before, it might work.
- Mr. Micklewhite: Good thinking, John. Let's proceed with that plan.

Let's Practice!

What do you think about this?

Instructions: Select the correct sentences that show disagreement.

- ☐ In my opinion, it was certainly the most enriching workshop.
- ☐ No doubt about it.
- ☐ The way I see it, it might be problematic.
- ☐ Absolutely. It's the most important.
- ☐ I'm not really sure about that.

Let's Practice!

Do John and his boss agree with each other? Let's find out.

Instructions: Use the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank

agree / was / is / agreed / asked / appreciated / appreciate

1. I _____ your feedback on the workshop.
2. It _____ certainly the most enriching workshop.
3. My boss _____ that customer service is the most important.
4. My boss _____ me to organize the workshop for every employee.

Extension Activity

What shop treats their customers the best?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Ask your partner which shop in your city has the best customer service. Choose one kind of shop to talk about, i.e. computer stores or supermarkets.
- Ask your partner to tell you 3 reasons why their service is better. Compare them to the other stores in the same category.
- Compare your reasons with your partner's. Express your agreement or disagreement in English.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I identify what makes good customer service.

☐ ☐

I write sentences to compare two things.

☐ ☐

I ask for another person's opinion.

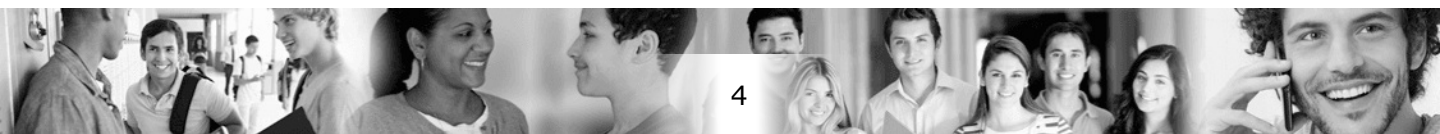

☐ ☐

I express agreement and disagreement in English.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- enriching (adjective): very good quality or useful
e.g. John attended a very enriching workshop last week.
- problematic (adjective): describes a situation that's a problem
e.g. To not have a computer for a presentation is problematic.
- occupied (adjective): busy doing something
e.g. All of the guides are occupied with tours this week.
- to proceed (verb): to begin or to continue e.g. The manager likes my ideas, so he will proceed with my plan.
- no doubt about it (expression): so sure about something that there is no doubt e.g. I know she would do a very good job. There's no doubt about it.
- to put it on (verb): to organize and hold an event
e.g. Many people came to the workshop last week so the manager asked me to put it on again.
- compulsory (adjective): required by a rule or law
e.g. It is compulsory for everyone working on the ship to have safety training.

Learning Points

Agreeing and Disagreeing

You use different phrases to agree and disagree tactfully (politely).
Generally, you use the Present Simple Tense in the negative to disagree.

At the workplace or when working in a group, we ask for others' opinion with questions such as:

- What do you think?
- I'm interested in your feedback/input.
- Please let me know your thoughts.

We show agreement or disagreement with statements in the chart below.

Agreeing	Disagreeing
I agree with you 100 percent. I couldn't agree with you more. That's so true. You're absolutely right. Absolutely. That's exactly how I feel. For sure ... You have a point there.	I don't think so. I doubt it. I'm afraid I disagree. I beg to differ. Not exactly. That's not always true. I'm not sure if ... I see what you're saying, but ... I don't know about that ... It might be problematic.

Learning Points

Comparatives & Superlatives

You can use adjectives to compare two things. These are called comparative adjectives. You can also use adjectives to compare one item with the rest of a group. These are called superlative adjectives.

For comparative adjectives, you can use the structure:

- as + adjective + as
- adjective (-er) than
- more/less + adjective + than

Adjectives with 3 syllables or more use more/less + adjective + than.

For superlative adjectives, you can use:

- adjective (-est)
- most/least + adjective

Adjectives with 3 syllables or more use most/least + adjective.

The adjectives good and bad are irregular adjectives. They do not follow the same rules.

Examples:

- Selling good quality products is as important as good customer service.
- There are more people at this workshop than the last one.
- There was less time allotted for the last workshop than this one.

